

2010 & 2011 NHL Entry Draft Selections From CHL Returned to Junior

Presented below are two sets of tables.

The first set outlines the breakdown of year over year offensive statistics from 2010-11 to 2011-12 for players selected in the 2010 & 2011 NHL Entry Drafts out of the Canadian Hockey League. The listings are based on the resources section directly below.

Prospects are gathered by team and stats compiled to include overall production from players returned back to the Canadian Hockey League.

The focus of this exercise was goals, identifying players trends in scoring with statistical changes year-over-year identifying development, or lack thereof. Overtime, empty net and power play goals are included for context, along with a goals-per-game and points-per-game.

The second table breakdown player/team's year-over-year differentials in the first section,

Differentials are calculated per column category:

2011-12 stats minus 2010-11 stats.

A minus signifies a year over year decrease

Percentage change is expressed as a ratio.

Example: Emerson Etem scored the equivalent of 134% of previous season goals and Joseph Cramarossa 65%.
